

Product Discontinuance Notice for 2nd Generation Signature Series Detectors

Edwards would like to announce the discontinuance of our Siga2 product platform. Replacing this platform are our recently released Signature series detectors, which feature both sensing and maintenance improvements, and are fully backwards compatible. Please visit www.my-eddie.com for more information.

Table 1 below details the milestones and associated dates of the affected products, while Table 2 features a list of these products along with direct replacements and alternates.

Note 2: Release pending

We would appreciate your effort to transition existing, as well as all future orders to the replacement product identified above. While supplies last, orders placed prior to 12/1/2016 for the 2nd generation models identified above will be honored. The pricing reflected on current orders will be honored on the replacement items.

The 2nd generation models identified above will be subject to a price increase after 12/31/2016, and their availability will be limited to inventory on hand.

We appreciate your attention to this important product announcement.
